

April 6, 2005

Just a quick note to let you know Kermit is doing great. We've finally had a couple of nice dry days so he could stay out in the back yard all afternoon, but he'd much rather be wherever we are. He gets along great with every dog, but still prefers us...He's happy as can be and loves his new home.