She has been through a basic obedience class and has pretty much mastered sit, stay, down and shake. She walks like champ... calmly at the end of the lead, not pulling, right off our left hip. Sits when we stop, waits for the heel command. We walk her at least 2 miles almost every day and play ball with her in the yard several evenings a week. On the weekends, she is in the yard with us all day long.

Just wanted to let you all know we arrived home safe and sound. Shea was a good girl in the car and is busy exploring the house. She was laying down on a bed we bought her within 5 minutes of getting here. She is a doll!
